

Directions to Heartwood Venues

To Skidompha Library, Main Street, Damariscotta

From the North - Route 1

From the South - Route 1

Exit right onto Business Rte 1. Proceed down the ramp and the Congregational Church will be on your right. Bear right and cross the small bridge which connects Newcastle with Damariscotta. Just past Reny's on the left, turn left and this will place you behind the Lincoln County Community Theater and then the library. Entrance for plays at the library is on the back side, not the Main Street Entrance. Skidompha Library is completely handicapped accessible.

To Parker B. Poe Theater at Lincoln Academy, Newcastle
